

Mondelēz
International
SNACKING MADE RIGHT

Instrumentation
& Controls
Technician Opportunity in Portland, OR

careers.mdlz.com

Instrumentation and Controls Technician ($5,000 Sign-on Bonus) Opportunity in Portland, OR

Benefits

- 100% company paid medical for ALL covered dependents
- Excellent prescription plan
- Paid holidays
- 401K with company match
- Pension plan
- Company paid STD
- Company provided skills training
- Ability to use company purchased or personal tools

Pay rate: $48+ (growth opportunity)

Schedule: All shifts ($0.50 shift differential) 1st shift during probationary period (first 90 days) then, either 2nd or 3rd

Requirements

Oregon LME or Journeyman Electrician license
Instrumentation and controls certification such as ISA, EPRI, etc.

Key Functions

- Working with field instrumentation that measures temperature, humidity, pressure, flow and level. Good understanding of Allen Bradley PLC, other manufacturing process control systems, troubleshooting field instrumentation.
- Developing calibration procedures and performing calibrations of process measurement and control system nodes.
- Maintaining and expanding new control loops and maintenance of associated panels.
- Commissioning and system integration of new systems within the facility.
- Working with a preventive maintenance program and all associated hardware and software.
- Supporting and maintaining established system standards and documentation for process control loops and analytical equipment.
- Generation of new and support of existing calibration records and documentation as needed.
- Effectively communicates and works collaboratively at all levels of the organization in diverse work group settings and in concert with external resources.
- Perform electrical repairs as needed on processing and packaging production line equipment.

Apply online now (Job Id: 1805001) or send your CV at hireme@mdlz.com

careers.mdlz.com