The Oregon AFL-CIO is planning a one-of-a-kind event featuring inspiring speakers, presentations from national experts on union organizing, engaging panel discussions, skill-building workshops, and space for Oregon unionists to meet each other and network.

2025 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: SARA NELSON

International President of the Association of Flight Attendants-CWA

This event is a surefire way for union members, leaders, and staff to learn from experts and workers about the most effective tactics and strategies for organizing workers to build strong unions.
